

Glade Springs Resort and Conference Center

Daniels, West Virginia

Located in the Allegheny Mountains of West Virginia, this 48 room luxury hotel and conference center is available for both family vacations and business retreats, offering access to ski, spa, and golf activities.

The facility is located on the site of the existing conference center and is connected to the existing commercial kitchen. The facility functions as the main lodging and meeting center of the resort and offers a mix of hotel rooms and suites, and an additional 4,100 square feet of ballroom and meeting space.
