

Mountaintop Community Church Family Life Center

Vestavia Hills, Alabama

This new two story facility on the campus of the Mountaintop Community Church will feature a gymnasium which is convertible into a worship space for church gatherings. The entrance lobby will have multiple screens for gaming, television, and direct video feed from the main church. A coffee bar with concessions will be adjacent to the lobby space. The second floor will have workout space with free weights, treadmills, and elliptical machines.

Owner: Mountaintop Community Church

Project Architect: Grant T. Gramstad, AIA

Completed: Fall 2009

Cost: $2.5 Million

Size: 17,500 Square Feet

Delivery Type: Design-Build-Negotiated

Contractor: Powers and Associates

